

IPIC2023

INTERNATIONAL PRIMARY
IMMUNODEFICIENCIES
CONGRESS

Ms Ruchi Saka

Ruchi Saka completed her graduation (B.Sc. Nursing) and Post graduation (M.Sc. Paediatrics Nursing) from Post graduate Institute of Medical Education and Research (PGIMER). She then pursues serving PID at Paediatrics Allergy Immunology Day Care, Advanced Paediatrics Centre (WHO collaborating centre for Education, Research and Training in Paediatric Immunology) PGIMER, Chandigarh, INDIA.

She is a Board member and Director of Communications of INGID (International Nursing Group for Immunodeficiencies). She is an active member of APSID (Asia-Pacific Society for Immunodeficiencies) She is media head of Integrated Association of Medical, Basic and Social Scientists (IAMBSS). She is also life member of various nursing organizations, Life Member of Trained Nurses Association of India, Life Member of Nursing research Society of India, Life member of Indian Association of Neonatal Nurses and Life member of Pediatric and Neonatal Nurses Forum.

She has presented talks at ESID and podcasts on multifaceted caring aspects of PID including vaccination and lifestyle with a revolutionize grandstand at World PI week. She also pitches in Paediatric Immunology clinical trials through various research projects collaboration and several manuscripts. Her domain of interest includes psychosocial challenges in PID. She envisages to outset a multidisciplinary research platform of Advance Immunology Nurse Clinics globally.